

KU B.A. Music Performance Requirements

The KU Music Performance emphasis is designed for students with an interest in performing, conducting, writing or teaching music outside of the public schools. The Music major with an emphasis in Music Performance provides preparation for students aspiring to take their place on the stage, to teach in private or community music settings, or to work collaboratively in the vast field of the performing arts.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Perform with competence as soloist and ensemble members and self-assess performance for continued improvement.
2. Identify, define, and engage the elements of music in sound and notation.
3. Describe current practices and historical trends in music.

Note that all students must achieve 120 undergraduate credits and a minimum 2.0 overall GPA to graduate. The final GPA requirement for Music Performance is 2.0. Piano proficiency is required.

Students who take FYSM 100: Finding Your Voice do not need to and may not take MUSC 116 for credit towards graduation.
